Preparing Your Team for a New Project/Contract

Let's unite your team on the same page at the start

We can co-create sessions for your team to work through the project plan and the total contract documentation with the shared objectives of getting the total team on the same page, team building and working through the important project and contract documentation.

Together

Negotiation Support Services

We can support you during your negotiations

We mentor, coach and train your professionals in preparing for negotiations and then guide them through the negotiations.

We can prepare your team for the negotiations and support each team member in understanding and fulfilling their roles.

We totally customise this consultative support service to your organisation's objectives.

Mediation Support Services

Objectively and fairly facilitate your negotiations with the other party

Without taking sides, we can help both parties find pathways through their conflict situation. We can sit with both parties privately to prepare both parties for the negotiations.

This service can be extended to include preparing the documentation from the negotiations that can lead to the contract documents.

This service can be reduced to facilitating the negotiation between the parties only.

For this service to work, we insist on an equal and transparent relationship with both parties.

Call us for a totally obligation free discussion about your needs.
